No. 14-55784

D.C. No. 2:13-cv-07738-SVW-

Central District of California,

ORDER

Before: SCHROEDER and N.R. SMITH, Circuit Judges.

On June 23, 2014, appellant filed an amended notice of appeal from the district court's order entered May 23, 2014 dismissing the action with prejudice.

Accordingly, this court's June 12, 2014 order to show cause is discharged.

The district court has denied appellant leave to proceed on appeal in forma pauperis. We deny appellant's motion to proceed in forma pauperis because we also find the appeal is frivolous. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a).

KK/MOATT

If appellant wishes to pursue this appeal despite the court's finding that it is frivolous then, within 21 days after the date of this order, appellant shall pay $505.00 to the district court as the docketing and filing fees for this appeal and file proof of payment with this court. Otherwise, the appeal will be dismissed by the Clerk for failure to prosecute, regardless of further filings. See 9th Cir. R. 42-1.

No motions for reconsideration, clarification, or modification of the denial of appellant's in forma pauperis status shall be entertained.

Because the court has found that this appeal is frivolous, the district court orders may be summarily affirmed even if appellant pays the fees. If appellant pays the fees and files proof of such payment in this court, appellant therefore shall simultaneously show cause why the orders challenged in this appeal should not be summarily affirmed. See 9th Cir. R. 3-6. If appellant elects to show cause, a response may be filed within 10 days after service of appellant's filing. If appellant pays the fees but fails to file a response to this order, the Clerk shall dismiss this appeal for failure to prosecute. See 9th Cir. R. 42-1.

If the appeal is dismissed for failure to comply with this order, the court will not entertain any motion to reinstate the appeal that is not accompanied by proof of payment of the docketing and filing fees and a response to the order to show cause.

Briefing is suspended pending further order of this court.
