1st Amended Complaint Filed in Romney Rico Litigation

By Collateral Logistics, Inc.,
CEO Steven ("Laser") Haas (laser.haas@yahoo.com)
November 6, 2013

Los Angeles - On Romney's 1st Anniversary of his POTUS loss, a foe (Laser Steven Haas owner of eToys Collateral Logistics, Inc., {"CLI"}) filed an illuminating 1st Amended Complaint in the Los Angeles Federal District Court; which issued a "New Case Order" and specific instructions for the RICO trial. Laser Haas originally sued Romney for $100 million on October 18, 2013 for Racketeering Kay Bee, Stage Stores, Learning Company & eToys.

Nature of Proceeding

The case, initially held up several days for review, is now formally titled "HAAS v ROMNEY" and is assigned docket number 2:13-cv-07738 in the Los Angeles Division of Federal Dist. Ct.

Concerning Romney's tenure as CEO of Bain Capital in 2001, CLI's CEO Haas 1st Amended Complaint claims to clarify some of the mystery behind Mitt's "retroactivity" lies upon Romney's sworn under Penalty of Perjury Fed Election Campaign Finance OGE 278 Form.

Civil Racketeering complaints permit a citizen plaintiff to become a "Private Attorney General" to address federal corruption issues that create "Prosecutorial Gaps". Plaintiff Haas claims prosecution gaps immensely exist. The 1st Amended Complaint reveals details of possible federal corruption concerning Bain Capital's MNAT law firm arranging for one of their own (Colm F Connolly) to become the Delaware United States Attorney on August 2, 2001.

Goldman Sachs and Bain Capital are Co-Defendants

Also named as "Co-Defendants" are Goldman Sachs (accused of fraud in eToys IPO & Bankruptcy case), Bain Capital (acquired Kay Bee in 2000) and Michael Glazer (CEO of Stage Stores and Kay Bee that acquired eToys) and eToys CEO Barry Gold (Glazer's director's assistant at Stage Stores). Along with Paul Traub who confessed his secret partnership with Barry Gold. Also partners with Paul Traub is convicted fraudster Marc Dreier and Ponzi schemer Tom Petters. During the election quest, Traub was named as "controller" of Petters Ponzi. Noteworthy is the fact that Former U.S. Attorney Colm Connolly is called a Co-Defendant for blocking prosecutions of Goldman Sachs & Romney's Bain Capital.
